

I want to be a professional, a Licensed Electrician in MA

By We Are Electricians

How do I get started?

Call any of the employment agencies below and tell them you want to be an electrical apprentice. Start your career in the electrical industry today!

ROI – Call 339-832-0562

Lead Staffing – Call 508-455-5852

Trade Source – Call 774-270-4462

MAC Labor – Call 800-439-3360

Tradesman International –

Call 833-260-3532

Skill Trades Partners –

Call 508-689-9728

People Ready – Call 617-689-5150

Ask if the employment agency will pay for your electrical schooling.

You are going to need to complete 8000 hours and 4 years of on job experience as well as 600 hours of Board approved electrical class room experience during your 4 years of training

Apprenticeship First Year	Apprenticeship Second Year	Apprenticeship Third Year	Apprenticeship Fourth Year
150 hours Classroom experience 2000+/- work exp.	150 hours Classroom experience 2000+/- work exp.	150 hours Classroom experience 2000+/- work exp.	150 hours Classroom experience 2000+/- work exp.

Schooling can be done each year, nights at your local Vocational Technical School

Make sure you keep track of your work experience on State form 272 from The State Board of Electricians.

<https://www.mass.gov/doc/candidate-information-bulletin-detailed-exam-and-licensing-information/download>

Bring your hands on talent and skills to the electrical industry Today
– Make money Today!