

I want to be a professional, a Licensed Electrician in MA

By We Are Electricians 2/14/2025

How do I get started?

Call any of the employment agencies below and tell them you want to be an electrical apprentice. Start your career in the electrical industry today!

ROI – Call 508-492-6077

Lead Staffing – Call 508-801-3755

Trade Source – Call 508-545-1847

MAC Labor – Call 800-439-3360

Staff Works Group – 617-233-8281

Tradesman International –

Call 508-655-9444

Skill Trades Partners –

Call 508-689-9728

People Ready – Call 508-822-5300

Ask if the employment agency will pay for your electrical schooling.

You are going to need to complete 8000 hours and 4 years of on job experience as well as 600 hours of Board approved electrical class room experience during your 4 years of training

Apprenticeship

First Year

150 hours
Classroom experience
2000+/- work exp.

Apprenticeship

Second Year

150 hours
Classroom
experience
2000+/- work exp.

Apprenticeship

Third Year

150 hours
Classroom
experience
2000+/- work exp.

Apprenticeship

Fourth Year

150 hours
Classroom
experience
2000+/- work exp.

Schooling can be done each year, nights at your local Vocational Technical School

Make sure you keep track of your work experience on State form 272 from The State Board of Electricians.

<https://www.mass.gov/doc/candidate-information-bulletin-detailed-exam-and-licensing-information/download>

Bring your hands on talent and skills to the electrical industry Today – Make money Today!